2. Purpose

ZeroSignal is a platform for discovering, recording and sharing outdoor places, routes and activities. From the website, verified organisations (clubs, guiding companies or associations whose identity has been checked by ZeroSignal) can also publish and manage their activities. This notice governs access to the website zerosignal.app. Use of the app and of ZeroSignal's services is also governed by its Terms and conditions.

3. Conditions of access and use

Access to the website is free of charge. Users undertake to make appropriate use of the content and services in accordance with the law, good faith and public order, and not to use them for unlawful activities or for activities that may harm third parties or the site itself.

4. Intellectual and industrial property

The ZeroSignal brand, design, code and original content belong to its owner or are used with authorisation. The 'Verified organisation' badge is a distinctive sign of ZeroSignal and may not be used outside the platform without authorisation. 5. Data protection and cookies

The processing of personal data is described in the Privacy policy. The use of cookies and browser storage is described in the Cookie policy.

6. Liability

Information about places and routes is for guidance only, and much of it is contributed by users themselves. Outdoor activities involve risks: each person is responsible for assessing their own preparation, the condition of the terrain and the weather. ZeroSignal accepts no liability for damage arising from misuse of the information or for third-party content linked from the site.

The 'Verified organisation' badge only indicates that ZeroSignal has checked the organisation's identity; it does not guarantee the safety or quality of its activities. Activities published by verified organisations are organised by them and under their responsibility, and any payment is made directly to the organisation, outside ZeroSignal.

7. Applicable law

This legal notice is governed by Spanish law. For any dispute, the parties submit to the courts and tribunals that have jurisdiction under the applicable regulations, including consumer and user protection legislation.
